

Map No 1Direction of walk on map: Top/Bottom

1. From the Queens Head pub, go up the steps ahead to the main road. Cross road, take care and go thro' kissing gate opposite, through a short thicket to another gate and then continue uphill, hedge left thro' two fields and gates to churchyard.

(Note: Look out for the Cyril Bean Memorial finger post at the bottom of the steps opposite the Queen's Head, and the kissing gate and pedestrian gate that have been installed on the path from the Queen's Head to Church Lane.)

2. Bear left on churchyard path thro' gate into road.
3. Turn right and follow road around to the right, pass Old Vicarage on left and just before road turns sharp right enter field on left by gap at side of metal gate, (Waymark Post). Half left towards boundary on left.
4. Keep hedge left, then cross footbridge just right of field corner.
5. With hedge left, along field edge to reach kissing gate in corner, half left thro' next field (leave hedge curving away to left), thro' gap at corner, then with hedge on left uphill to go thro' "Bristol Gate" (pedestrian gate within a field gate).
6. Slightly left uphill across field to leave through a wooden kissing gate in the middle of opposite boundary (right of wooden fence).
7. Cross field half left and exit thro' gate into farm access track and forward down gravel track to road.

(Note: Farm is called "The Byre" and the road Back Lane)
